F.C.P.J.

Founded in 1982 through a land donation by Al Geiger, a Quaker, in order to provide space for meetings, retreats, workshops, camps and educational activities that promote: Ecological practices, Human Rights, and Social Justice awareness, Peaceful Conflict Resolution, and Educational Self Empowerment programs.

RESIDENCES: ECO #1 & ECO #2

Built in 2010, these lovely eco-friendly residences provide income as well as house our Facilities Manager and family. Working on eliminating the remaining $115,000 mortgage is a high priority of FCPJ's financial planning.

Peace Education Center - A large interior space w/kitchen, two large bathrooms., fireplace & WiFi.

MAINTENANCE

Purchased in 2019 with a no interest loan from a friend of FCPJ, this DR Mower was recently paid off in full, July 2020. With optional attachments, this equipment is an important tool for property upkeep and numerous project needs which arise on our 15 acre property.

OUTDOOR SOLAR SHOWERS

In the process of an upgrade, these showers will be fitted with a new and efficient solar water heating system utilizing our Florida Sun and keeping true to our focus on ecological sustainability.

CRACKER HOUSE

An authentic glimpse into "Old Florida", this Cracker style home on the property awaits restoration. A future B&B, a space for special events and a place to commune with our past, JOIN our efforts to restore this lovely home.
