Winter Executive Committee Meeting

Friday, 23 First Month 2026

MINUTES

Clerk Bill Carlie opened the Meeting from the silence with the following quote:

From the beginning, it was the witness of changed and liberated lives that shook the foundations of the established social, economic, and religious order of England. The Religious Society of Friends—the Friends Church—is about nothing if it's not about transformation. Helping each other open to the Living Christ among us, allowing ourselves to be searched by the Light at work within us, humbling ourselves to be taught by the Inward Teacher, trusting that surrendering to the Refiner's Fire, we can be given new hearts. It is and always has been through these new hearts that we are made channels for the Motion of Universal Love."

Noah Baker Merrill 2012

The clerk welcomed Friends. There were no announcements.

We reviewed the agenda as published in the Documents in Advance. There were no changes.

Nominating Committee

There was no report at this time.

Treasurer's Report

Joel Cook presented the report (attached.) The biggest take away is that the apportionment payments to the yearly meeting are down. Expenses were on target, but we have spent $30,000 more than we have taken in.

Joel Cook presented the proposed budget on behalf of the Finance Committee. The budget is informational at this time. Friends are encouraged to contact members of the Finance Committee with questions or concerns.

We are transferring $110,000 of the Guin bequest to Friends Fiduciary. We are not transferring the full $157,000 because it is helping cover the cash flow shortfall.

In answer to a question about reminding meetings that have not paid their apportionments, Susan Wade says she does not do that, because the apportionment amount is a suggested donation to the yearly meeting, not a bill, and a reminder would make it seem like a bill.

Friends accepted the report.

Secretary's Report

Susan Wade spoke as Yearly Meeting secretary. She was having difficulty sitting at the computer for more than an hour, following an accident. She has received lots of help from F/friends and is grateful. She has been spending time trying to arrange for the use of the camp at Wekiva Springs for the use of the camp for Half Yearly meeting.

Friends accepted the report.

Ad hoc Organizational Documents Committee

Phoebe Andersen reported for the ad hoc Organizational Documents Committee. (Preliminary report attached.) They have completed several sections and need to work on appendices and policies. Staff, officers, and committee clerks are urged to review the material on the web and give the committee feedback. We are hoping to use the handbook to supplement the work of the Nominating Committee so that they can give Friends a clear outline of the work they are being called to.

Friends accepted the report with thanks.

Gathering Committee

Vicki Carlie was not available tonight will present the report tomorrow as published.

Field Secretary for Earthcare

Beverly Ward presented the report as the Field Secretary for Earthcare report (attached.) Friends accepted the report with thanks.

Beverly Ward presented the report on Quakers' Concerns Regarding the Dade-Collier Training and Transition Airport Detention Center (attached). We are asking the Yearly Meeting support for the amicus brief and for the accompaniment statement.

Friends accepted the report.

Trustees Committee

Neil Andersen reported for Trustees. He expressed gratitude to the treasurer, bookkeeper, and the Yearly Meeting secretary for the work done to transfer funds as needed.

Friends accepted the report.

Half Yearly Meeting Committee

Brian Olsen reported for the Half Yearly Meeting committee. HYM 2025 went really well. Susan Wade has already reported on reserving the Wekiwa Youth Camp for 2026.

Friends accepted the report.

Peace & Social Concerns Committee

Warren Hoskins reported for Peace and Social Concerns Committee (attached). The committee joins in the request for SEYM to support the amicus brief and accompaniment statement regarding the Dade Collier Training and Transition Airport Detention Center. Additionally, they are asking for a contribution of $1500 to the Immokalee cooperative grocery store.

Friends accepted the report.

Worship & Ministry Committee

Worship & Ministry Committee's report stands as published and we will hear more tomorrow.

Youth Committee

Rachel Dellinger added to the report from the Youth Committee. There is always a need for volunteers for yearly meeting sessions, you do need to have CAPP training and clearances. They are also considering some conscientious objector training. It was recommended that we connect with Quaker House Fayetteville.

Friends accepted the report.

Youth and Young Adult Coordinator Report

Rachel Dellinger also provided a report as the Youth and Young Adult Coordinator (attached).

Friends accepted the report as published.

Earthcare Committee

Beverly Ward reported for Earthcare Committee. They have been working with Peace and Social Concerns.

Friends accepted the report.

Friends General Conference

Liz Dykes briefly reported on changes to the governance structure of Friends General Conference.

Friends accepted the report.

FLGBTQC Representative

Jan Dahm supplemented her FLGBTQC report (attached). There is a need for prayers for F/friends in Minnesota, where tensions are high.

Friends accepted the report.

A Friend expressed concern for those who are being targeted by ICE.

Executive Committee considered the minute from Peace & Social Concerns with respect to the Miccosukee’s court intervention in the Dade-Collier Training and Transition Airport Detention Center.

26WEC01 Executive Committee of SEYM recommends that Interim Business Meeting accept Peace and Social Concerns Committee’s intention to prepare and submit an SEYM amicus brief in support of the Miccosukee’s court intervention, and to prepare a broader statement on the immigrant detention centers.

APPROVED

26WEC02 Executive Committee recommends that Interim Business Meeting agree to allow SEYM to receive and manage any donations toward the preparation and filing of this amicus brief as needed.

APPROVED

Friends closed with worship.

Respectfully submitted,

Ad hoc SEYM Documents Committee: Updating the SEYM Handbook

SEYM Winter Interim Business Meeting

24 First Month 2026

This report was written on December 20 for the Documents in Advance. There likely will be oral updates at WIBM.

The committee suspended our efforts on the handbook revision at the end of October, following a debilitating head injury Phoebe sustained on a jetway in the Tallahassee airport. Ed has been undergoing cancer treatments since August and will have surgery (cystectomy) on January 19. He will continue serving on the committee.

The committee plans to reconvene on January 2, 2026, with weekly work sessions resuming on January 8, 2026. As of this writing, we hope to have a document ready to present to EC for discernment and approval at Summer EC. The printed SEYM Operational Handbook: Procedures & Job Descriptions, Third Edition, 2026, will be available at Fall IBM.

On behalf of the Committee, Ed Lesnick

Committee members: Neil Andersen, Phoebe Andersen, Ed Lesnick

Gathering Committee Report

SEYM Winter Interim Business Meeting

24 First Month 2026

The 2026 Yearly Meeting Gathering will be held April 1-5 at the Dayspring Camp and Conference Center.

Registration opens January 26th!!!

Our theme this year is Hold Fast the Hope that Anchors the Soul, which is taken from George Fox's Epistle 314:

“And hold fast the hope that which anchors the soul, which is sure and steadfast, that you may float above the world's seas; for your anchor holds sure and steadfast in the bottom, let the winds, storms and raging waves rise ever so high.”

Leslie Manning will be presenting the Walton Lecture and Retreats. She will lead us finding the ground of our hope and exploring the synergistic and unitive relationship of our faith, spirituality and witness.

What's new this year?

Cheryl Demers Holton, our Program Coordinator, has been working on a great lineup of workshops and planning more opportunities for our virtual attenders to participate. An early morning Bible Study will be offered at the same time as early worship. Visit our webpage to see the draft schedule.

Dayspring has made some changes that they are firm about:

- Lodging rates have increased by $10/night.
- Check in time — that is, when you can get your room keys on Wednesday — is now 4pm instead of 3pm. Check out time on Sunday — when you return your keys — is now 9am instead of 10am.
- We have to hire lifeguards for use of the pool so we're only offering one adult swim time, and one family swim time.

We are no longer offering to let you pay by check by mail. You can pay online when you register or pay by check or online when you check in.

Because on-site lodging is limited, we can no longer offer one-night stays for some rooms, such as private rooms.

Volunteers are needed for critical responsibilities:

- Snacks Coordinator
- Zoom hosts: Volunteers are needed to run Zoom for hybrid workshops.
- A/V assistant: The YM Clerk, Bill Carlie, is looking for someone to arrive early Wednesday afternoon to learn how to set up and connect the equipment, with an eye towards helping out next year.

FLGBTQC Representative Report

SEYM Winter Interim Business Meeting

24 First Month 2026

The FLGBTQC (Friends for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer Concerns) communities first began in the 1970s at annual and semi-annual international gatherings (Mid-Winter Gatherings and Summer FGC Gatherings). The structure initially was similar to monthly meetings—Nominating, Finance, Worship and Ministry committees, then clerk, co-clerk, recording clerk, and treasurer with most of the work done at Gathering. Later, only one clerk would serve, and a ‘teams’ approach was tried of Heart, Worship, Tech, Finance. Interest and attendance fell off, particularly during the pandemic and at present there is a monthly meeting for worship and once a month worship sharing, both online. Attendance has varied with each, but the opportunities have been consistently offered since the lockdown. This past year saw a spark in interest causing a specially called business meeting. In this meeting, the body asked for a Steering Committee to be created to determine a structure to organize the group again or discern if the group should be laid down. Friends in general were encouraged to speak to their monthly meetings and yearly meetings to remind all that ‘we’re still here’, particularly in this time when so many LGBTQ folks are at risk due to targeted legislation. Visibility is important and allies are cherished.

The FLGBTQC Steering Committee is comprised of 11 Friends, including two co-conveners; there are two additional Friends who do not attend, but serve to hold the committee in the Light as we meet. (I serve on the Steering Committee, which is a separate responsibility and function from that of serving as SEYM Representative. I am providing some background for the community and the current work in progress that will impact it going forward as I am involved in the work as part of the Steering Committee, and am invested in what happens as SEYM Rep, as well as a member of the FLGBTQC community). The committee spent many hours researching contact information for FLGBTQC folks who had fallen out of touch and worked hard to recreate connections. A survey was sent out to Friends and we gathered a sense of what the community wanted still, what was troublesome, when the moments of joy and powerful connection were felt. There is a listserv that had been ongoing since early days to provide communication and connection particularly in between the in-person gatherings, and many Friends had fallen away from using it. During and after the survey, a resurgence of activity returned to the listserv, and it was good to see a variety of joys, sorrows, prayer requests, reflection, bits of wisdom, and just simply love in connection and support return to the threads.

The Steering Committee has since begun work in three areas, Revisioning, Reconnecting, and Rebooting, with respective sub-committees exploring ideas and options for each. The results of the sub-committees will be gathered into a report to be threshed then given at the next FLGBTQC Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business (most likely FGC Summer Gathering).

This report had more to it than a typical Representative report, and maybe that’s a good thing going forward. There are 16 Yearly Meetings associated with FGC who have nominated Reps; there are also a number of new Yearly Meetings that have formed and separated from less inclusive Yearly Meetings because of willingness to support same-sex marriage. (Yes, still.) There’s a lot of possibility in so many people being informed and staying connected, and there is no limit to what love and perseverance can do.

Thank you all for your continual support over so many years.

In that Peace that passes all understanding,
Jan Dahm
SEYM Representative to FLGBTQC

Communication with the FSE Anchoring Committee

Communication with the Anchoring Committee since the last report has continued via email and other remote means. I had in-person visits with two members of the committee during FIBM. In addition to the committee other Friends have provided invaluable support. Deep gratitude for my SEYM coworkers and the Half Yearly Meeting Committee and attendees. The Tallahassee visit with Phoebe and Neil Anderson is planned for First Month 2026 to coincide with the Florida Council of Churches 2026 Florida Faith Advocacy Days, 14-15. More information regarding the Florida Council of Churches and advocacy days follows.

Adapted from the CDC All-Hazards Approach

Meeting with Monthly Meetings (MMs), Worship Groups (WGs), and Others

Perform visits to Monthly Meetings and Worship Groups within SEYM to help them discern their leadings in care of the Earth, and to provide information and coordination among Meetings.

SEYM Community Preparedness

We continue to remain vigilant regarding potential climate and anthropogenic threats. Listed below are links a few resources: Are You Ready? An In-Depth Guide to Citizen Preparedness P-2064 | September 2020, click here

Other resources within SEYM include, but are not limited to:

- Gainesville Friends Meeting will make the meetinghouse available to SEYM Friends for short-term use in the event of a climate emergency. Shawna Doran is the contact person.
- Other Monthly Meetings and Worship Groups and individuals have offered shelter in the past.
- Friends are encouraged to consider their household needs.
 - Do you have an emergency plan?
 - Will you shelter in place?
 - Can you shelter with someone else?
 - If you must evacuate, do you have a contact person in your meeting or worship group?

Lee Hall, Radnor Monthly Meeting, Philadelphia Yearly Meeting have begun exploring a concern regarding shared transportation among Friends. This is of particular concern as our communities age, the impacts of automobile travel, and opportunities for community building. While many Friends have developed local strategies, Lee and I are interested in learning of these, sharing the solutions, and, if possible, providing assistance. As our discussions continue, we welcome others to join with us. More information to follow!

Interactions or Collaborations between and among other SEYM committees

The interactions between and among SEYM committees help to facilitate communication and collaboration of our regional concerns with national organizations and to be a Quaker Presence at specific events.

- Archives Committee: I am following up with Bill Rapp as I plan visits with other committee members and the archives early 2026;
- The Committee for Ministry on Racism (CMOR): I attended two CMOR meetings since the last FSE report. We continue to plan for the 2026 Gathering. Also, a couple of CMOR committee members also meet with the SEYM Peace and Social Concerns Committee. This seems to help with communication between committees. One key discussion item from CMOR is the connection between the work I have been doing with the Towards Right Relationship with Native Peoples (TRR) program, <https://friendspeaceteams.org/trr/>, and the Decolonizing Quakers Working Group, <https://www.decolonizingquakers.org/>, as related to the impacts the Doctrine of Discovery and colonization. The Angelic Troublemaking: Beyond Bystander Training, mentioned above, explores anti-racism/decolonization work with emphasis on local concerns and means of accompaniment;

- Earthcare Committee: The Peace and Social Concerns Committee has invited Earthcare Committee members to join their meetings.
- Half Yearly Meeting (HYM) Committee: More than 50 of us gathered at Wekiwa Springs State Park, 2025.11.27-30. We were near the 60-person capacity! There were bear sightings, canoeing, crafts, games, wonderful music jams, and front porch hangouts. Without access to the kitchen, each morning we had an oatmeal bar, along with fruit, pastries, yogurt...There were amazing soups, stews, a cookout...and SMORES!

This year's Faith and No Practice Talent Show was one for the record books. There were more than 10 acts, including original songs, poems, and artwork.

The Committee's early debrief was quite favorable. However, we seem to have lost our large coffee urn. The committee is considering providing compostable dishware, we seem to have addressed the issue of reuseable cutlery.

Personally, HYM is a pivotal event in my annual year as field secretary. Our use of the state park is contingent upon an environmental program. Given the challenges we have experienced over the last few years, it is a great joy the way we have continued to build and strengthen our connections. Thank you, Friends!

Crafting and Chatting at HYM, 2025.11.27

- Nominating Committee: The Nominating Committee met several times during and after FIBM. We have several opportunities and continue to ask that you please do not avoid us when you see one of us—Shawna Doran, Ed Lesnick, Brian Olson, and me—coming towards you. Please consider serving as Gathering Clerk.
- Peace and Social Concerns (P&S) Committee: I continue to meet with the P&S Committee along with other members of the Earthcare Committee. As mentioned above, P&S's concerns also have some overlap with those of CMOR. There have been several appeals to the Yearly Meeting, Monthly Meetings, and Worship Groups, including consideration of the AFSC statement, "A different future is possible: Quaker organizations share a vision for peace in Palestine and Israel."
- The appeal was repeated for Friends to help purchase bike light kits in support of farmer workers. Fort Myers Monthly Meeting (MM) and others have been working with Mission Peniel who installs the kits.

- A concern regarding the Dade-Collier Training and Transition Center Immigrant Detention Facility located in the Big Cypress National Preserve was brought forward to the Peace and Social Concerns Committee. The committee was advised of a meeting of a small group of Friends and attendees that included Chris McBride who raised the concern. The group discussed the possibility of developing an amicus brief in support of the Miccosukee Tribe of Florida's intervention in the action Friends of the Everglades, Inc., et al. v. Noem, et al., Case No. 25-CV-22896-JEM. Consideration also was given to writing epistles, sign-on statements, news and journal articles, etc. Betty Osceola, a member of the Miccosukee Tribe of Florida and of the Panther clan who has been leading the vigils at the gate of the detention facility was contacted regarding the possibility of an amicus brief and other support. Betty Osceola said that she "...believed it would be a good step to file in support of the lawsuit...It also helps to amplify the voice of the tribe and organizations working hard to stop the facility, by sharing with your networks."

The committee supported the work of the group.

P&S and the small group will bring the concern forward to SEYM and the Yearly Meeting Clerk, Bill Carlie.

Quakers' Concerns Regarding the Dade-Collier Training and Transition Airport Detention Center SEYM Winter Interim Business Meeting 24 First Month 2026

Greetings, Friends,

Over the last month or so, a small group of Friends have been threshing our concerns regarding the Dade-Collier Training and Transition Airport Detention Center (also known as TNT) in the Big Cypress Preserve. Attached are two documents that we would like to the Yearly Meeting to support. The support would include:

- Approval from the YM to file an amicus brief in support of the Tribe's motion to intervene with the assistance of a pro bono attorney. (A draft of a brief is attached.). Our goal is to find an attorney who would do the work of preparing the brief pro bono. We would in that instance, raise funds for the filing fees. We ask that SEYM help with this effort by receiving and administering funds that we raise and/or assist in paying the attorney and filing fees.
- Approval of the Statement of Accompaniment, which would include adding SEYM to the list of signatures, posting it on the SEYM website, and sharing it through the newsletter;
 - Asking Monthly Meetings, Worship Groups, organizations, and individuals to share the statement and, if led, to write journal and news articles about the detention facility; and
 - Hold all in prayer and ministry.

A Statement Regarding Accompaniment

This statement grew out of a concern lifted up by an attender at Fort Myers Monthly Meeting (FL)^{1,2}. The concern was shared with a number of Friends within Southeastern Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends of Truth (Quakers) and another Friend, a member of Radnor Monthly Meeting, Philadelphia Yearly Meeting.³ A small group began meeting remotely during Twelfth Month (December) 2025 to discuss how Quakers might accompany the Miccosukee Tribe of Florida in its legal action regarding the State of Florida managed detention facility located at the Dade-Collier Training and Transition Airport.

Overview

Quakers have a history of championing human rights in the United States, dating back to the days before the country was established. Since the time of William Penn's landing, Quaker adherents have upheld the biblical values of human equality and intrinsic value and dignity of human beings. Our pursuit of migrant justice and our objections to unjust treatment of the detained are grounded by generations of Quakers who, in the 17th and 18th centuries, were subjects of atrocities and forced migration.

Quaker influence in U.S. law includes such bedrocks of the system as jury trials, the allowable scope of indictments, and the requirement that all laws be written (the documentation of all laws). The elements of humane treatment in the U.S. prison system were established in large part by the Quakers.

² The Monthly Meetings and Worship Groups in Southeastern Yearly Meeting are on the unceded lands of many Indigenous people. Follow this link, <https://seymquakers.org/land-acknowledgement/>, to view the land acknowledgement.

³ Southeastern Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends of Truth (Quakers) hereinafter referred to as SEYM.

Work in regard to human rights may be that which most people in the United States most readily associate with Quakers, however, we also unite with the Miccosukee Tribe of Florida regarding care for the environment. Quakers in Southeastern Yearly Meeting have a long-standing history and international recognition in environmental or, what we term as, Earthcare concerns. In addition to an Earthcare Committee and individual members serving as representatives to Quaker and environmental organizations, SEYM has employed a person, Beverly G. Ward, to address Earthcare concerns since 2016. It is our understanding that this was the first such action by a Yearly Meeting. Our knowledge of the unique ecosystem of the Everglades, the Big Cypress National Preserve, and the relationship of the Miccosukee Tribe of Florida have led members within our Yearly Meeting to accompany the Tribe in the efforts to sustain the ecosystem.

A number of members and attenders from Monthly Meetings within SEYM have participated in prayer vigils led by Betty Osceola, a member of the Miccosukee Tribe of Indians of Florida and the Panther Clan, outside the immigrant detention facility located at the Dade-Collier Training and Transition Airport known by the Miccosukee as “TNT”.

On 14 Seventh Month (July) 2025, the Miccosukee Tribe moved to intervene as an Intervenor-Plaintiff in the action styled Friends of the Everglades, Inc., et al. v. Noem, et al., Case No. 25-CV-22896-JEM. The case seeks relief under the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), the Administrative Procedure Act (APA); and provisions of Florida law, to stop construction of the federal detention facility at the Dade-Collier Training and Transition Airport Center.

On 5 Twelfth Month (December) 2025, five members and attenders of the Religious Society of Friends first met to “thresh” our concerns regarding the TNT Detention Center. Beverly Ward, an anthropologist and the Southeastern Yearly Meeting field secretary, contacted Betty Osceola advising that we would like to explore the possibility of submitting an amicus brief in support of the Tribe’s intervention in this legal matter, given that Quakers are called, by our faith and practices, to “cultivate an active spirit of love and peace.” Betty Osceola advised that it would be a good step to file in support of the lawsuit and that it also [would] help to amplify the voice of the tribe and organizations...by sharing with our networks.

Quakers are asked to live in harmony with nature. This includes living in keeping with the spirit of unity, sacredness, and integrity of all creation and walking gently over the earth, seeing that of God in all of nature. We are advised to:

- Maintain in ourselves and encourage in others a sense of responsibility for the environment, both for the present and for future generations.
- Avoid amusements that stimulate destructive emotions, are detrimental to the health or tranquility of others, or are damaging to the natural environment.
- Show a loving consideration for all creatures, cherishing the beauty and wonder of all God’s creation.
- Share our sense of reverence and stewardship for the earth.⁴

It is imperative that we point out the environmental consequences of the state and federal government actions. This includes the impacts of up to 5,000 detainees and employees at the TNT detention center. We hold all in prayer and ministry.

Quaker Meeting members and attenders will be impacted by the results of the present legal action. If the current situation is permitted to continue, Quakers in SEYM have been impacted morally and spiritually by the detention and will be further impacted in all other places that attempt to replicate TNT. (In addition to the Everglades site, which began taking detainees in July. Florida has opened similar detention sites in the northeastern part of the state and is considering a third in the Panhandle.) The adverse environmental impacts of the detention facility must be assessed.

⁴ SEYM, Faith and Practice, Chapter 5: 11. Queries and Advices, Care of the Natural World

Critical Concerns

It is unjustified that the State of Florida has established the immigration detention facility in Ochopee, on the lands of the Miccosukee Tribe. Moreover, the facility is an affront to humanitarian, spiritual, and environmental ethics.

Sacred Land

The Miccosukee Tribe of Florida is a federal and state recognized tribe. The history of the Miccosukee people in the area known as the Big Cypress National Preserve (the “Preserve”) extends back across many centuries. Warfare and relocation, however, have reduced the Tribe’s use of the land to perpetual lease rights along the eastern boundary of the Preserve and the TNT site; Tribal rights within the Water Conservation Area 3-A; special-use permits within the Everglades National Park; and the Miccosukee Reserved Area.

The significance of the Preserve to the Tribe is best understood by a description of how the Tribe lives in this area. According to court documents:

all of the Tribe’s active ceremonial sites and a significant majority of the Tribe’s traditional villages... are located within the Preserve. Indeed, the Tribe played a significant role in the creation of the Preserve as part of the sustained campaign to prevent the further development of the TNT Site... [T]he Big Cypress Enabling Act, which created the Preserve and specifically recognized the Tribe’s rights to use and occupy the land therein.

There are fifteen traditional villages in the Preserve, home to Tribal families. The villages, and their precursors, have existed in the Preserve for at least a century before the legislation was enacted to create the Preserve. This presence of the villages includes the Tribe’s sacred cultural sites, ceremonial grounds, and burial grounds within or adjacent to the Preserve. The use and occupancy rights means access to these and other sites in order to practice traditional ceremonies. There also are other sites and villages located on Tribal lands west of the TNT site and adjacent to the Preserve which Tribal members and village residents rely on and exercise their rights to hunt, fish, and trap for subsistence.

The Tribe works to preserve its members’ rights, including those who reside within the Preserve. This includes defending members’ statutory interests and the safety, subsistence, and community health. Over the past decade, the Tribal administration conservatively estimates that at least $2 million has been spent on infrastructure within the Preserve. The purpose of these investments is to improve Tribal residences and maintain or enhance accessibility to traditional sites, in a manner that protects the Preserve’s fragile environment.

Unidentified Impacts of the Detention Facility

The TNT facility is located within the Preserve or on lands perpetually leased to the Tribe. The proximity of the facility to the Tribe’s villages, sacred and ceremonial sites, hunting grounds, and other lands has raised concerns among its members in regard to environmental degradation and potential adverse impacts caused by the construction and operation of the detention facility. The last environmental impact study conducted in 1974 found that additional airstrip infrastructure in the area would have significant negative impacts on the Everglades, which includes the Preserve, ecosystem. There have been no environmental impact studies conducted regarding the construction and operation of the detention facility or its effects on the ecosystem.

The 1,000 to 5,000 occupants at the facility more than doubles the population density in the area. There have been no studies or analyses to assess the impacts of the detention facility at the TNT site on the residents of nearby tribal villages or community members who live and work on the Miccosukee Reserved Area, including students attending the Miccosukee Indian School. Potential impacts may include impaired use of the Preserve by tribal members for traditional and ceremonial purposes, including hunting, fishing, and trapping within the immediate vicinity of the TNT site. Specifically, adverse impacts may include, but are not limited to:

- Potential contamination or pollution from the facility on potable water quality for residents and the surrounding environment;
- Interruption to endangered Florida panther and Florida bonneted bat habitat;
- Increased traffic, and the resulting water quality, health and safety, and subsistence impacts;
- Declines in the number and quality of game and/or fish stocks within the Tribe's traditional rights – guaranteed by federal and state law; and
- Reduced access to the two-lane Tamiami Trail, the evacuation route during inclement weather or wildfire.

The purpose of this statement is to address the relationship between the Tribe and the land, specifically the Preserve, and the potential adverse impacts of the detention facility. As mentioned earlier, we hold in prayer and ministry the detainees and employees. We limit further comments on the conditions within the facility in this statement, as we seek to accompany the Tribe.

Accompaniment

To summarize, we find the following conditions as set out in the Tribe's motion to intervene:

- The Miccosukee Tribe of Florida has a relationship with the land known as the Preserve that predates the establishment of the Preserve. This relationship includes residential, sacred, and subsistence practices;
- A 1974 environmental impact study found that additional airstrip infrastructure in the area would have significant adverse impacts on the Everglades, which includes the Preserve, ecosystem.
- The 1,000 to 5,000 occupants at the TNT facility will at least double the residential density in the area;
- There have been no studies or analyses to determine if constructing and operating the detention site will harm residents of nearby tribal villages or community members who live and work on the Miccosukee Reserved Area, including students attending the Miccosukee Indian School downstream of the TNT site.
- There have been no studies or analyses conducted regarding the effects on the number and quality of game and/or fish stocks guaranteed by federal and state law.
- Desecration of the land and human beings sets an example for other areas in the State of Florida and beyond to replicate.

This statement is shared in support of the Tribe's motion to intervene as Intervenor-Plaintiff in the action styled Friends of the Everglades, Inc., et al. v. Noem, et al., Case No. 25-CV-22896-JEM. We ask others to join us in support of the motion by sharing this statement and otherwise holding all in prayer and ministry.

If the amicus path would not be the best support role, we would offer our energies in public writing and raising awareness. A number of Friends (Quakers) in Southeastern Yearly Meeting support the Tribe with a regular, prayerful, physical presence at the site, facilitated by Betty Osceola, member of the Miccosukee Tribe of Indians of Florida and the Panther Clan, who advocates to protect her ancestral Everglades homeland. Quakers' Concerns Regarding the Dade-Collier Training and Transition Airport Detention Center

What follows is a draft of our early impressions for Counsel for Amici to consider. While our concerns may not lead to the development of an amicus brief, it is our intention to lift up these concerns and to otherwise support the Tribe's intervention.

INTERESTS OF THE AMICUS CURIAE

Quakers have a history of championing human rights in the United States, dating back to the days before the country was established. Since the time of William Penn's landing, Quaker adherents have upheld the biblical values of human equality and intrinsic value and dignity of human beings. Our pursuit of migrant justice and our objections to unjust treatment of the detained are grounded by generations of Quakers who, in the 17th and 18th centuries, were subjects of atrocities and forced migration.

Quaker influence in U.S. law includes such bedrocks of the system as jury trials, the allowable scope of indictments, and the requirement that all laws be written (the documentation of all laws). The elements of humane treatment in the U.S. prison system were established in large part by the Quakers.

While human rights work may be that which most people in the United States most readily associate with Quakers, we also unite with the Miccosukee Tribe of Florida regarding care for the environment. Quakers in Southeastern Yearly Meeting have a long-standing and international history in also championing environmental or what we term as Earthcare concerns. In addition to an Earthcare Committee and individuals serving as representatives on Quaker and other environmental organizations, Southeastern Yearly Meeting has employed a person to address environmental or Earthcare concerns since 2016. It is our understanding that this was the first such action by a Yearly Meeting. Our knowledge of the unique ecosystem of the Everglades, the Big Cypress National Preserve, and the relationship of the Miccosukee Tribe of Florida have led members within our Yearly Meeting to accompany the Tribe in their efforts to sustain the ecosystem.

A number of members and attenders from Monthly Meetings (local congregations) within Southeastern Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) have participated in prayer vigils led by Betty Osceola, a member of the Miccosukee Tribe of Indians of Florida and the Panther Clan, outside the immigrant detention facility located at the Dade-Collier Training and Transition Airport known by the Miccosukee as TNT.

On 14 Seventh Month (July) 2025, the Miccosukee Tribe moved to intervene as an Intervenor-Plaintiff in the action styled Friends of the Everglades, Inc., et al. v. Noem, et al., Case No. 25-CV-22896-JEM.

On 5 Twelfth Month (December) 2025, five members and attenders of the Religious Society of Friends the present group first met to "thresh" our concerns regarding the Dade-Collier Training and Transition Airport Detention Center. Beverly Ward, who is an anthropologist and works on environmental issues for the Southeastern Yearly Meeting of Quakers, reached Betty Osceola of the Miccosukee Tribe, advising that we would like to explore the possibility of submitting an amicus brief in support of the Tribe's intervention in this legal matter, given that Quakers are called, by our faith and practices, to "cultivate an active spirit of love and peace." Further, Quakers are asked to live in harmony with nature. This includes living in keeping with the spirit of unity, sacredness, and integrity of all creation and walking gently over the earth, and seeing that of God in all of nature, we are advised to:

- Maintain in ourselves and encourage in others a sense of responsibility for the environment, both for the present and for future generations.
- Avoid stimulating destructive emotions, are detrimental to the health or tranquility of others, or are damaging to the natural environment.
- Show a loving consideration for all creatures, cherishing the beauty and wonder of all God's creation.
- Share our sense of reverence and stewardship for the earth.

It is imperative that we point out to governments the environmental consequences of States' actions. Moreover, in light of our values and religious obligations, it is imperative for Quakers to insist that Florida reject inhumane detention conditions. It is imperative that we know who is being detained, for Quaker interests including prayer and ministry.

Quaker Meeting members and attenders will be impacted by the results of the present legal action. If the current situation is permitted to continue, Quakers in Southeastern Yearly Meeting and in all other places that attempt to replicate TNT will be impacted spiritually, and through the need to use resources to address adverse environmental impacts.

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

It is unjustified for the State of Florida to allow the Detention Center in Ochopee, on the lands of the Miccosukee Tribe. Moreover, the state-managed immigration detention facility in the Florida Everglades is an affront to humanitarian, spiritual, and environmental ethics.

Argument

I. Sacred land; no dialogue with Tribe.

It is unjustified for the State of Florida to allow the Detention Center in Ochopee, on the lands of the Miccosukee Tribe.

II. Torture is an affront to spiritual values.

The detention facility may have violated international standards by imposing conditions that could amount to torture of detainees, according to Amnesty International's new report. See Liv Caputo, 'Copy of Guantánamo': Human rights group alleges torture, inhumanity at 'Alligator Alcatraz,'' (December 4, 2025; Florida Phoenix).

The state-run site the DeSantis administration calls "Alligator Alcatraz" has engaged in practices that could violate international law. An independent investigation is imperative. Reports of cruel, inhuman, or degrading treatment or punishment encompass:

- Obstructions from speaking with attorneys.
- Punishment cages with shackles.
- Punishments meted out to detainees who demand respect for their own or others' human rights.
- Poor nutrition, grotesquely unhygienic conditions, poor medical conditions, and withholding of medication.
- Sleep deprivation.
- Uninvestigated claims of racism.
- Uninvestigated claim by a detainee of a death onsite.

"It's a copy of Guantánamo," a Cuban man identified as an asylum seeker told Amnesty International.

The asylum seekers onsite would have a strong claim under international law that they require asylum from the United States. Reports of the denial of asylum is an additional affront to human rights and religious values.

III. Florida's practices in furtherance of federal objectives, as outlined herein, defy Southeastern Yearly Meeting Quakers' longstanding responsibility for the environment.

As the Court is aware from the Motion to Intervene by Friends of the Everglades and the Center for Biological Diversity:

- A 1974 environmental impact study that found additional airstrip infrastructure in the area would have significant negative impacts on the Everglades ecosystem.
- The planned 1,000-5,000 occupants at the facility will at least double the residential density in the area.

- There have been no studies or analyses to determine if constructing and operating the detention site will harm residents of nearby tribal villages or community members who live and work on the Miccosukee Reserved Area, including students attending the Miccosukee Indian School downstream of the TNT Site.
- There have been no environmental impact studies conducted regarding the construction and operation of the detention facility or its effects on the environment generally.
- Continued desecration of the land and human beings sets an example for other States to replicate.

Taken together this is a conflict with the Quaker role to provide Earthcare through Southeastern Yearly (regional) Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends.

Additionally, “Trump says he wants other states to build migrant detention centers after Everglades tour.” This is extremely problematic for humanitarian, spiritual, and environmental ethics and needs to be halted immediately.

CONCLUSION

It is unjustified for the State of Florida to continue to build and maintain operations “Alligator Alcatraz” on the lands of the Miccosukee Tribe for the above-stated reasons, and Quakers have a moral and spiritual obligation to speak.

Peace & Social Concerns Committee Report

SEYM Winter Interim Business Report

24 First Month 2026

Report of the 1/10/2026 Zoom committee meeting, for the SEYM EC and WIBM meetings of 1/23-25/2026, and request for time on the agenda, and for a committee meeting on 1/24/2026, submitted 1/21/2026

Present on the SEYM Peace and Social Concerns Committee Zoom call that began at 10 AM on 1/10/2026: Beverly Ward, Tampa (SEYM staff, Zoom facilitator for this meeting); Warren Hoskins, Tallahassee (Committee Co-Clerk); Helen Fox, Fort Myers; Brad Stocker, Miami; Brian Olson, Miami; Shawna Doran, Gainesville; Chris McBride, Fort Myers; John Heimburg, Orlando

We started the committee meeting hearing this Query, followed by silent worship:

As a committee, are there spiritual tools and practices to help us and others to work with the grief, anxiety, guilt and anger that arise with all the issues facing us (long COVID, wars, climate change creating extreme weather, conditions that cause refugees and people to flee, threats to vulnerable communities and to democracy)? How do we as Quakers face this in a loving, life-affirming way within ourselves as individuals and as a community?

1. At our December committee meeting, we had addressed the immigrant detention centers in Florida, especially the ones in the Everglades in South Florida. (One of these has existed for years, the Krome North Service Processing Center (ICE).) The new large-scale immigrant detention facility was built on the old Dade-Collier Training and Transition Airport and dubbed “Alligator Alcatraz” – it’s where people snatched off the streets are being held in terrible conditions, with lack of transparency or access to community resources. We focused in on TNT/Alligator Alcatraz, and the committee took up a proposal for an amicus brief for support of the lawsuit brought by the Miccosukee tribe. A working group connected with our committee has been having Zoom meetings on this.

At this meeting Chris McBride reported that she and Lee Hall (from a northern Friends meeting?), an attorney, have had ongoing discussions about seeking the opportunity to file an amicus brief and the drafting of such a brief. They have also been drafting statements on the immigrant detention centers to provide to SEYM to issue. The working group has been meeting by Zoom. They need another attorney and are actively seeking someone. The Fort Myers and Miami Friends are engaged with the Sunday afternoon interfaith vigils being held outside Alligator Alcatraz and expect to continue this work; the upcoming one will be bigger, with three buses coming (two from Fort Myers, one from Miami). SEYM’s CMOR met this week and they are informed and supportive of this work.

Minute: The SEYM Peace and Social Concerns Committee affirms the intention to prepare and submit an SEYM amicus brief in support of the Miccosukee’s court intervention, and to prepare a broader statement on the immigrant detention centers. We are seeking pro bono counsel from an attorney; if that is not successful, we will seek support from the Yearly Meeting to include fundraising support (and ask that SEYM would receive and manage any donations toward this amicus brief). The committee also requests support for adding statements and information to the SEYM website and distributing education and action requests to monthly meetings.

[Later note: Emails on this work have already been sent to the SEYM EC by Beverly Ward; this minute provides clarification that all the work being done flows from discernments made by the SEYM Peace and Social Concerns Committee at its meetings.]

2. We then took up the requests from the Coalition of Immokalee Workers (the CIW) previously circulated to the committee and others in SEYM. (See the endnote of emails about this) In short, the only commercial grocery store in the town of Immokalee has closed; the nearest grocery store is ten miles away and more expensive than the one that closed, and many residents of Immokalee are farmworkers or dependents without licenses or transportation of their own. The CIW was already operating a Co-op grocery store on their premises in Immokalee, so they are expanding it and better provisioning it to serve their community. We agreed in December that we would ask SEYM to donate $1,500 to the CIW for the Co-op, but we did not minute that, so now we will:

Minute: The SEYM Peace and Social Concerns Committee requests that SEYM make a $1,500 donation to the Coalition of Immokalee Workers for the operation of their Community Co-op Grocery Store.

The bike light campaign continues, plus bike servicing, at Mission Peniel in Miccosukee, Florida. Warren will request a repeat announcement in the SEYM e-newsletter about donations of the light kits still being needed, to avoid nighttime pretextual stops of bicyclists.

3. On the newly extreme weather events caused by changed climate, we are looking to share more resources for SEYM such as the SHIFT Guide just emailed out to the committee, and by working with CLEO, and working with other organizations in our region. SEYM can anticipate the need to address impacts of extreme weather on all of us in SEYM, and the resulting losses of shelter, the dislocations, the stress on us (especially on children and the elderly), the disruptions of the food supply and medical care access, and so on.

The committee wants to work on a Resources page for the SEYM website, and to ask more often for something to go into the weekly SEYM e-newsletter.

4. Implications of the ending of Temporary Protected Status for the 300,000-plus Haitians residing now in the US, who are apparently to be sent back to Haiti starting February 3, 2026. Included among them are people who have had work permits and become employed in agriculture, in healthcare, as labor in many areas, who are making all kinds of contributions to our country and in many cases sending support to stranded families in Haiti - what actions are recommended for us? Do we know affected people in our community? The issue is ripe for letters to the editor, and social media commentary.

5. The FCNL Florida Advocacy Team is being reconstituted and needs more members to be acting on FCNL requests for lobbying. Are there any actions we can take or continue toward ending the genocide in Gaza? Any actions we could be taking to prevent the US from launching a shooting war on Venezuela?

There are basically three focus items nationally this year for lobbying with FCNL –

- 1) reducing internal and external militarism or similar
- 2) Gaza
- 3) environmental issues

FCNL has regular Zoom meetings, one this past week.

6. On the ongoing genocide in Gaza: An online AFSC program has been held on Gaza, a Zoom program with Tallahassee Monthly Meeting, Sunday January 11, 2026, after worship. Brian Blackmore, AFSC's Director of Quaker Engagement, led the program which featured AFSC staff who had lived in Gaza. [This program is recommended for other monthly meetings.]

Committee discussion followed about what we can do now to end the genocide. “We need to find ways to maintain our centering.” Warren asked if we could ask meetings to hold Gaza in the Light. There was no unity; we are overwhelmed and many of us are seeing Gaza as one more urgent issue.

Warren expressed a perceived need to follow up with the original statement we endorsed, “Quaker organizations discern genocide is occurring in Gaza and urge courageous action” and asked, “What is next?” Gainesville Quakers marched with Jewish Voice for Peace re Gaza last week. Maybe we could get something on the SEYM website? Consult with Vicki, and see what could be done?

8. The degradation of the public health systems, especially in Florida, even as the COVID pandemic continues - and COVID is not the only airborne disease circulating. Can we plead for more local leadership for testing and treatment, vaccination and other protective steps (such as addressing clean air for our schools and health facilities)? Can we ask ourselves and our meetings for acknowledgement that airborne diseases are circulating? Never have so many Americans been sick, tired and so stressed at the same time, yet having the main stressors ignored by politicians and the press. (The main stressors are financial and fumbling healthcare, along with looming weather extremes - some of them capable of damaging or isolating our residences [see recent South Florida flooding rains, for instance].) Exhibit A might be the current measles outbreak in South Carolina, that seems to have spread out from a church to reach more than 100 known to now have measles.

Date of our next meeting: second Saturday February 14, 2026 at 10 AM? But polling for an alternative time, third Wednesdays so February 18, 2026 .

Passage for contemplation and closing worship at 11:58 AM:

As we close our meeting let us contemplate on a larger scale what is happening in the world: the wars and campaigns of nations that inflict death, destruction and injury as a matter of policy. Let us be tender for the suffering of millions around the globe.

Respectfully submitted, Warren Hoskins, Co-Clerk of SEYM PSCC

SEYM PSCC communications in support of our Minute of 1/10/2026 on the Coalition of Immokalee Workers (the CIW) & support for their Co-op Grocery

For our December Peace & Social Concerns Committee meeting by Zoom, we discussed the problems that the closure of the only grocery in Immokalee (an old Winn-Dixie) had created for a community already under siege, and the appeal made by email by the CIW.

SEYM and many monthly meetings have historic concerns and relations with farmworker families and organizations in Florida, going back to the documentary about the hardships of farmworker life, HARVEST OF SHAME (Harvest of Shame was a 1960 television documentary presented by broadcast journalist Edward R. Murrow on CBS that showed the plight of American migrant agricultural workers.)

For decades AFSC had farmworker programs in Florida; Quakers also volunteered with the United Farm Workers led by Cesar Chavez (whom I met in Miami in the 1970s). In recent decades we have literally marched with the CIW, and hosted speaking engagements at our meeting houses.

After discussion, we agreed to (but did not for some reason actually create a minute) asking SEYM to make a $1,500 contribution to CIW for this Community Co-op Grocery Store.

I consulted Google AI about the CIW's Co-op and it reported the following:

In 2026, the Coalition of Immokalee Workers (CIW) is focused on a critical expansion of its Community Co-op Grocery Store in Immokalee, Florida. This project serves as an urgent response to the town becoming a food desert following the 2025 closure of its only major supermarket, Winn-Dixie.

2026 Co-op Expansion and Community Response

- Expansion Project: The CIW is actively raising funds (nearly $10,000 raised in late 2025) to scale up the co-op's physical size and inventory.
- Affordability Measures: To combat rising food costs and scarcity, the co-op has lowered prices and expanded its stock of staple foods to serve more than the 200 families it previously supported weekly.
- Operational Model: The co-op operates from the CIW's Immokalee office, providing groceries at prices designed only to cover operational costs, ensuring farmworker families have access to healthy food while a long-term supermarket solution is sought.

Broader 2026 Fair Food Initiatives

In addition to the local co-op, the CIW is advancing several national and international objectives for 2026:

- New Partnerships: Retailers and co-ops continue to join the Fair Food Sponsor Program, including independent grocers and established co-ops like the Takoma Park Silver Spring Co-op.
- Heat Protections: A major 2026 priority is pressuring large grocers like Kroger to join the program to implement the nation's strongest heat stress protections for field workers.
- Global Reach: The CIW's Worker-driven Social Responsibility (WSR) model is being adapted in India's sugar industry, with 2026 marking a key period for implementing these safeguards abroad.

Hi Warren,

Thank you so much for getting in contact with me. I have a great admiration for the continual commitment to social justice that Quakers aspire to and have been looking for ways to involve you more in our work, so I am thrilled that you are reaching out.

We truly appreciate your efforts to garner financial support for us and for our Co-op.

Are you interested in setting up a virtual meeting/presentation with us and the SEYM?

Best,

Marcos Martins

Worship and Ministry Report

SEYM Winter Interim Business Meeting

24 First Month 2026

The SEYM Worship and Ministry Committee persists in its charge of providing spiritual care to the SEYM community and beyond. In order to do this, the committee members meet monthly and steep each meeting in worship. Worship sharing has been deep and powerful these last few meetings with wisdom shared regarding what it means to hold others in the Light, finding Spirit in the ordinary, and the prophetic challenges to which we are called.

Ongoing opportunities for spiritual enrichment with which Friends are all welcome to partake are the Weekly Queries for the Journey found in the newsletter and on the website and the Seekers' Book Club which is currently exploring the writing of John Calvi in his book How Far Have you Traveled? Another experience of extended worship was offered in Eleventh month. Friends expressed gratitude for worship that felt deep and positive, and want us to continue to offer the opportunity.

Lately, we worked to help bring Traci Hjelt Sullivan opportunities to minister among SEYM Friends regarding her work with Right Sharing of World Resources. She will be doing a presentation at Deland Friends and may visit other Friends as time permits.

At FIBM, we announced the Michener Lecturer as Susan Taylor from Tallahassee MM. She will invite us into Listening Circles on her topic "Tending the Soil of our Faith Community". We continue to work with Susan to support her ministry with us at the 2026 Michener Lecture.

Cheryl Demers-Holton has been chosen as a Fellow in the first cohort of the Friends Incubator Fellowship for Public Ministry for 2026-2028. "This cohort represents a shared commitment to reclaiming public ministry as a communal practice rooted in worship, sustained by relationship, and accountable to the body. It includes the participation of five-yearly meetings on the East Coast of the United States... [this project] supports Friends who are called into visible Spirit-led ministry and the meetings willing to walk with them. In the Quaker tradition, public ministry is never a solo act. It arises from worship, is tested in community, and is carried on behalf of the meeting into the world" (<https://www.friendsincubator.org/>).

We are grateful Cheryl's gifts and spirit were recognized in the intensive interview and selection process and ask that all Friends hold her, her elder, support committee, and Deland Friends Meeting in the Light through this journey of ministry.

The Worship and Ministry Committee persevere in seeking new openings for Spirit to labor among Friends. Please check out all the offerings that are published in the newsletter and SEYM website to find what speaks to that of God within you so that our listening hearts can be transformed to bring the Light to others.

Youth Committee Report

SEYM Winter Interim Business Report

24 First Month 2026

The Youth Committee has been busy discerning how best to provide long term support to the SEYM's youth and ensure that all generations of seekers feel welcome in our community.

With this goal in mind, the Committee has created a "toolkit" to help Meetings develop their First Day Schools. The intention is for this to be a living document for SEYM, evolving with new needs and compiling our collective experience. It includes book recommendations, tips on setting up, and suggested themes for lessons. We ask that Meetings provide us with their insights or questions so that we can continue to gather information and address. We also ask that Meetings continue to ask what they are doing to foster a safe environment welcoming to families.

Our attention will be shifting now towards the Gathering, and we hope to have many youth and young adults in attendance. Our theme this year is "Love, Hope, and Action in Troubled Times". In an era where so much around the world is confusing and violent, we hope that the youth can find comfort and solidarity in our Beloved Community.

Youth and Young Adult Coordinator Report

SEYM Winter Interim Business Meeting

24 First Month 2026

Half-Yearly Meeting

Ten youth and 15 young adults attended Half-Yearly Meeting at Wekiwa Springs State Park, making up nearly half the attendees. We are grateful to the DeLand Quakers for inviting the Williams and the Dykes families. Also new to the gathering were the Sims family from Gainesville, and the Cawns from Orlando. These new families were extremely talented and significantly raised the bar for the Friday night Talent/No Talent show. After the gathering, one new participant expressed the following:

I wanted to write and express our gratitude for a lovely time. The girls made friends and were eager to participate in the activities. The volunteers were warm and friendly. It was so nice to be part of a beloved community. Please know how amazing the weekend was! A truly remarkable experience....The girls have already asked if we can go next year!

Next year, we hope to make kayaking more accessible for families, and to reinstate the tradition of having youth prepare a meal for everyone on Saturday night.

Outreach Literature

I created two pamphlets to use for outreach events. The first is titled “You Might Be a Quaker If...” and is a simple, 8-page “minizine” (a popular form of small, folded, DIY pamphlets) with basic principles of Quakerism and a QR code linking to Belief Net’s online “What Religion Are You?” quiz. Although Quakers of course do not proselytize, many report first coming to Quakerism through this online quiz.

The second pamphlet, “Quaker and Queer,” was created at the suggestion of OMM’s Kasper, specifically for LGBTQ+ outreach. While researching it, I consulted with AFSC/GMM’s Brian B. and asked permission from other notable Friends to include them in the 21- page, 4-1/14 x 5-1/2” pamphlet.

Lastly, I formatted the SEYM youth committee’s new First Day School Toolkit. Printed copies of all three of these pamphlets will be available at the Winter Interim Business Meeting, and digital versions are available from the YYA coordinator for Friends to print and distribute.

Outreach to and Retention of Families

Outreach: I organized volunteers from OMM to table at Orlando’s Come Out With Pride Festival. While doing so, I also compiled a set of portable outreach equipment with the hope of tabling at future events for SEYM or with individual meetings, as recently discussed by the youth committee.

I continue to foster relationships with like-minded organizations of young adults that use the Orlando meetinghouse. I have also begun a new relationship with an educational program for undocumented youth at in Apopka. Doing so has made Quakerism more visible in the community, but, unfortunately, very few individuals have expressed interest in attending meeting or learning more.

Retaining families after an initial period of their feeling welcomed and included continues to be a challenge. While many families feel spiritually aligned with Quakerism, they are busy, and they struggle to attend worship on Sunday mornings. Some families express waning interest due to lack of ministry, activism, and/or social opportunities throughout the week, and some teens are reluctant to attend first day school when there is no one else their age present. I hope that Friends will join me in continuing to try to engage young families and to include them in their meetings' activities.
